About the Receipt of the Final Report from the Special Investigation Committee
Related to Inappropriate Transactions of a Consolidated Subsidiary

As stated in the “Announcement Regarding Establishment of a Special Investigation Committee Related to Inappropriate Transactions of a Consolidated Subsidiary” announced by LIXIL Group Corporation (hereinafter “LGC”) on February 8, 2019, incorrect information may have been reported from its consolidated subsidiary, LIXIL Renewal Corporation to LGC and also, there may have been inappropriate accounting processes for recording some revenues earlier than at the actual timing. LGC has established a special investigation committee and has investigated to understand the full scope of the issue, including details of the issue and financial impact to LGC’s consolidated financial statements as well as to consider preventive measures.

As stated in the notification “About the Receipt of the Interim Report from the Special Investigation Committee Related to Inappropriate Transactions of a Consolidated Subsidiary” announced by LGC on March 13, 2019, LGC hereby announces that, LGC received the final report, which includes the proposal of preventive measures, from the investigation committee. The report will be released on April 1, 2019 once the report is redacted to protect the privacy of individuals and confidential information.

LGC sincerely apologizes to shareholders, investors, and all other stakeholders for any inconvenience caused by this issue.
